The Holy Spirit Came

ACTS 2

Jesus had promised the disciples the Holy Spirit would be coming. On the day of Pentecost, the disciples were all together in one place. Suddenly, a sound of a violent rushing wind filled the whole house. The disciples saw tongues that looked like flames of fire resting on everyone's heads. Then they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit helped them speak in different languages.

Jews from every nation were staying in Jerusalem for Pentecost. A crowd came, and they each heard the disciples speak in their own language. Everyone was amazed.

Peter stood up and spoke. He began preaching about Jesus. He told the crowd how Jesus had been crucified on a cross and how God had raised him to live again. He told the people all about the wonderful miracles God had done through Jesus.

When the people heard, they believed. Peter told them they must confess their sins, repent, and be baptized in the name of Jesus. They would then receive the Holy Spirit.

About 3,000 people accepted Christ as their Savior that day and were baptized.
